FUN AND FOE FOR DOGS AND CATS

Make this Halloween all about treats, not tricks, for your pet.

Halloween is the 2nd most common holiday for pets to get lost

Make sure your pet always wears a collar with ID, and consider microchipping

Designate a quiet room where pets can hang out with the door closed during festivities

Pet Poison Helpline sees a spike in emergency calls during Halloween week, making it their busiest time of year.

Dress-up dangers

Panic and injury

Tight or constricting costumes can pinch and choke, causing your pet to panic.

Choking or strangulation

Make sure your pet's costume is free of anything that hangs or dangles, like fabric, strings and bows.

Average claim costs

Chocolate toxicity $429

Sugar-free gum and candy toxicity $430

Nationwide pet insurance covers treatment costs for accidents, injuries and more.
